Manager of Patent And Trademark, U.S.A

Re.: Misuse of my Invention in Canada

Dear Sir,

To mail my documents for Patent, I referred to the Post Offices in Canada. In two cases the officer in charge did not perform her legal duties, for special delivery did not scan the envelope and not sealed the envelope . Day after I realized that they should do so. As a result I referred to the Chief and notified him that the employee in charge was interested to see my documents and wrongly told me saying that she scanned and sealed my envelope after I left the Post Office.

For your information, Post Offices in Canada are run by the private sector. They do not have sense of responsibility as Government employees.

My first letter to Patent Office of the U.S. lost as I explained (photocopy no. 1) . On November 15, 2001 I mailed another envelope. To receive a Patent in Canada, I realized that another person has submitted an application for Patent similar to mine. As it was received at a later date, it was not accepted. As a result the Patent will be issued in my name. .

I am worried about my documents in the U.S. Please let me know if another person has submitted the same application for Patent, in order I can follow up the case through RCMP or possibly FBI.

In case you receive my second envelop and you issue a Patent to my name, I shall have no worry.

A new application together with money order is attached to this letter.

Sincerely Yours,

Khosrow Bahrayni- Moghadam
